KRAMER MUM ON ASSEMBLY BOOZE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, April 21.—Prohibition enforcement officials today refused to be "smoked out" by an attempt by anti-saloon officials to force federal prosecution of alleged offenders who are charged with liquor to New York assemblymen in such quantities that several members were said to have been intoxicated.

William H. Anderson, Anti-Saloon League superintendent, in a letter to prohibition Commissioner Kramer, sharply demanded that he make an investigation "to the end that all members, including even members of the assembly, who may have violated the law, may receive proper treatment."

Commissioner Kramer said today the letter had not officially come to his attention.
A copy of the letter made public today by Mr. Anderson was brought to the commissioner's attention, but the latter declined comment. In the letter, Commissioner Kramer was shown a copy of the Anderson demand, but he also refused to commit himself as to what federal action may be taken. Both officials, though declining to enter upon discussion of the merits of Mr. Anderson's charges, seemed to resent seriously the course followed by Mr. Anderson in making public correspondence addressed personally to an official of the bureau in advance of its receipt by that official.

"DRY" COMMITTEE ELECTS OFFICERS

Meeting Held At Court House Tuesday Afternoon—Will Keep Up Work Until Old Parties Vote Prohibition in Their Platform—Think Supreme Court Will Give "Dry" Decision.

The prohibition county committee met at the court house Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock and elected the following officers: Chairman, Leslie Herring, Ulster Park; vice-chairman, Edward A. Smiley, Ellenville; and Myra S. Whistler, 121 Linderman avenue, this city; secretary-treasurer, Rev. P. N. Chase, this city. Vacancies in the committee were also filled.
The sentiment was unanimous to keep up the work as a separate party until the old parties vote prohibition into their platforms. It seemed to be the general conviction that the United States supreme court would decide favorably on the Eighteenth Amendment and on the Volstead Enforcement Law, and that an effort would be made to see that the law is enforced.

PEOPLE MAY VOTE ON AMENDMENTS

Republican Bill Providing For Referendum On Federal Amendments Goes Through Senate—Chance To Amend State Constitution.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, April 21.—Republican leaders have determined to put through an amendment to the state constitution which will give the people in the future final decision on ratification of proposed amendments to the federal constitution which are submitted to the states for approval. The Walters bill proposing this amendment was passed by the senate early this morning.

Wets who opposed ratification of the prohibition amendment and demanded that the question of ratification be submitted to the people as a referendum were outvoted when New York state gave its approval to the dry clause in the federal constitution.

JOHNSON WINS NEB. PRIMARY

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Lincoln, Neb., April 21.—That Hiram Johnson will carry Nebraska in the state primary by from 25,000 to 30,000 was made virtually certain today when reports received from 223 precincts out of 1,849 gave him a plurality of 8,117. Wood was second with 5,127 and Pershing third with 3,080.

Indications were that William Jennings Bryan will be elected as a delegate at large to the national convention.

Despite the publicity given General Pershing's candidacy, who was running as a favorite son, it is indicated that he is a poor third, with General Leonard Wood a fair second. Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, who ran as the Democrats' presidential candidacy, without any opposition, polled a heavy vote throughout the state.

Women voted for the first time in this state in a general presidential primary, although limited to county and municipal offices.

GATES TAKES MARYLAND BRIDE

The Middleham Episcopal Chapel, near Baltimore, Maryland, was the scene on Saturday afternoon, April 17, at 4 o'clock, of a beautiful spring wedding, when Miss Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Parran, Sr., became the bride of Copeland E. Gates of Kingston. The chapel was beautifully decorated with arches of evergreens and daffodils, the bridal couple standing under a bell of apple blossoms. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in her gown of white brocade satin with wing sleeves of silk net and pearl pendants. The veil, caught with orange blossoms, followed the lines of the court train. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and swansonia. The groom's gift to the bride was a bar pin of pearls and sapphires. The matron of honor was Mrs. John Parran, Jr., who wore a picturesque frock of peach blow georgette crepe with hat to match and carried pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids were the Misses Mary Turner, prettily attired in orchid organdie, with hat to match and carrying orchid colored sweet peas; Betty Gettinger, in yellow organdie with hat to match and carrying white sweet peas; and Margaret Gray in pink organdie with hat to match and whose flowers were pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids were the brides' classmates at St. Mary's Seminary, Washington, D. C. The little flower girl was winsome Ella May Parran, sister of the bride, who wore a dainty frock of white organdie and carried a basket of apple blossoms. The best man was John Parran, Jr., brother of the bride. The ushers were Claude Turner, Dorsey Gray and Edward Solters. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. G. Ganit, rector of the chapel. Mrs. Archibald Parran playing the wedding music before the ceremony, during and after the same. At the close of the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, "Gables on the Paluxy," where a reception was tendered the bride and groom. Mrs. Parran, mother of the bride, was becomingly gowned in golden brown beaded georgette crepe over satin. Mrs. Gates, the mother of the groom, wearing a handsome creation of olive blue georgette crepe, beaded, over satin. There was a profusion of beautiful gifts. Following the wedding trip through Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Gates will make their residence at Lake Katrine, where Mr. Gates, graduate of Ulster Academy and of Cornell University, with post graduate honors also to his credit, has a delightful modern farm home in readiness for his bride, who is a niece of Mrs. Frank Thompson of this city.

As was previously announced the Children of Mary of St. Peter's will hold their church and dance this evening at 8 o'clock. ## SILK THEIVES AND BOOTY ARE TAKEN

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, April 21.—Five men are under arrest today, five tons of stolen raw silk valued at $218,000 have been recovered and the police believe a band of thieves who have stolen millions of dollars worth of merchandise from freight cars in the last two years has been unscathed. Further arrests are expected.

The men under arrest were captured in a road house at Wasept, N. J., after a fight with detectives. The recovered silk was found in a garage near the roadhouse. The police assert it was stolen March 3 from a freight car in the New York Central Railroad yards.

Affront of a New York business man, the police declare, is probable. It is asserted that this man has received stolen goods valued at more than $1,000,000.

London, April 21.—The Rev. R. G. Bourke, who, in a recent attack against prohibition, demanded that England's "shock" be "God save the King and the workingman's beer," has broken out again. "Our habits may need correcting," he declared, "but, by God, only Britons shall do it."

TO SETTLE TURK STATUS TO-DAY

Inter-Allied Council Expected to Take Up German Disarmament Ultimatum and Indemnity Tomorrow—No Funds For Armenian Mandate.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
San Remo, Italy, April 21.—When the inter-allied supreme council resumed its deliberations on world peace problems today it was expected that the vital points of the Turkish settlement would be out of the way before night and that the decks would be cleared for taking up the German situation tomorrow.

Some phases of the German question, notably the advisability of sending a disarmament ultimatum, already have been discussed informally, but it is known that no definite decision has been reached.

It is held in some quarters that a new blockade of Germany would prove ineffective since the United States would not participate.

Significance is attached to the action of Premier Millerand in rejecting the suggestion of Premier Lloyd George and Premier Nitti that the exact amount of Germany's war indemnity be fixed.

Premier Lloyd George argued that if Germany knew the exact amount she is to pay the allies for war damages, she would, to some extent, be relieved of her economic discouragement, and would probably modify her attitude towards France.

The task of providing a mandate for Armenia is proving a troublesome one. It is reported that Washington is being sounded as to how much financial aid the United States would furnish in the event that the league of nations takes a mandate for Armenia. It already has been explained that the league is without the necessary funds to hold a mandate for Armenia.

A LUCKY BARGE.

The Senator Walton, Built Here, Back After Many Sea Trips.

The large barge Senator Walton, which was built at one of the local shipyards here three or four years ago, is back at her home port, arriving on Saturday with a cargo of ship timber.

This barge in the last four years has been on many of the high seas and while narrowly escaping disaster at different times has always returned to port bringing her cargo intact and her crew in safety.

After discharging cargo the Senator Walton will proceed to southern seas for more active service.

CLEMENCEAU BACK IN POOR HEALTH

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Paris, April 21.—Former Premier Clemenceau returned to Paris today from his vacation trip to Egypt, and was greeted by a notable throng of celebrities.

M. Clemenceau still showed the effects of his recent illness and some of his friends declared that he appeared to be in worse health than when he departed.

The "Tiger" appeared to have taken a lesson in silence from the Sphinx. When asked what he thought of the San Remo conference and what results he expected, he put a finger upon his tightly closed lips and vigorously shook his head.

President Deschanel was among the officials gathered at the Lyon railway station.

A great crowd had gathered in the street outside and cheered when the ex-premier entered an automobile to drive to his home.

"What impression did you get from your trip to the land of Pharaoh?" the "Tiger" was asked.

"My principal impression is that I got a bad cold which I must care for now," was the grim response.

The veteran statesman did not appear to be in a very good humor, but thawed out under a storm of congratulations which poured down upon him. To one friend he said:

"I had a good time. I killed a few crocodiles and a few elephants."

Both at the station and at his home, Mr. Clemenceau cordially shook hands with numbers of old friends who welcomed him back. His voice was hoarse and his general appearance showed that he had not yet regained his old time strength and vigor.

M. Clemenceau arrived in Marseilles yesterday and came to Paris over night.

COAL SELLS AT MARCH PRICES

There has been no change in local retail coal prices as yet, and coal is being sold at the March prices. Coal dealers are accepting next winter's orders at prices prevailing date of delivery, and what that price will be they are unable to state.

The "outlaw" strike on the railroads held up deliveries of coal, but no fear of a famine is expected in Kingston as the dealers have enough coal to keep the trade supplied. Coal trains are running more freely on the Ulster & Delaware and the North River Coal Company has resumed shipments by water to customers along the Hudson river. The coal for water shipment is brought down to the trestle on the Strand and dumped into coal boats.

PREMIERS ARE YET FAR APART

French Stubborn As to Making It Easier For Germany—Belgium Choosing Own Course—British Press Pessimistic.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, April 21.—The preliminary conversations of the premiers at San Remo so far have been without results," said a dispatch from San Remo to the Daily Telegraph today.

The French are still undisposed to modify the peace treaty, and it is very unlikely that they will yield. However, they may agree to give a time limited trial to the Anglo-Italian view and yield temporary concessions regarding Germany.

"The Belgians will probably seek an alliance with both France and Great Britain before they sign any alliance with France alone."

The Exchange Telegraph correspondent at San Remo reported that Premier Nitti and Premier Lloyd George would favor a reduction of the area of allied occupation in Germany and also a shortening of the period of time that allied troops are to remain in Germany.

The Chronicle takes a pessimistic view of the supreme council meeting so far as it has gone.

"Is the conference a failure?" asks the Chronicle.

The Daily News took a similar attitude.

"The secrecy of the conference renders talk of open diplomacy a mockery," said this newspaper.

TOO HEAVY FOR THE SKILLYPOT

He was driving a five ton auto truck which carried a six ton load and he safely negotiated the Skillypot hill and thought his troubles were over for the night Tuesday as he expected to spend the evening in Kingston. The gallant craft Skillypot, which has not been laid up all winter by storm or ice, had berthed on the other side and as the chauffeur prepared to run his auto and load aboard her the captain held up a restraining hand. The auto and its load was too heavy for the Skillypot, and the chauffeur was forced to drive around by way of Edenville and cross on the bridge to this shore.

Reaching Kingston somewhat later than expected he had to park his car and load outside as the garage man was afraid that the load would prove too heavy for his garage floor. Truck and load tipped the scales at 22,000 pounds or just an even eleven tons. At the Jthinebeck ferry shed on Ferry street is posted a regulation that a vehicle and load exceeding 16,000 pounds in weight will not be accepted for transportation. The driver of the truck when he had read that notice scratched his head and said: "Gosh, if the Transport won't carry over an eight ton load what could I expect the Skillypot to carry?"

STRIKERS' HEADS PLEAD IN VAIN

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Chicago, April 21.—Hope for a settlement today of the switchmen's strike in the Chicago district, center of the nation-wide walkout, went glimmering when a mass meeting of the strikers, assembled here to hear pleas of strike leaders to return to work, was broken by one man—a tall lanky individual, who arose in the gathering and persuaded the strikers to disperse.

His shouts of "walk out, boys, and keep on striking," were taken up by other radicals in the crowd and soon the meeting, which began peacefully, was suspended.

John Grunau, chief of the strikers, was not present.

New Triplex Springs Help Overland 4 Break Record

In the great endurance test recently at Indianapolis an Overland 4 stock car covered an average of more than 778 miles each day for 7 days.

The success of this severe test is another proof of the quality of material in the Overland 4, and the protection afforded the chassis by the Triplex Springs.

BUNCOED BY THE "UPLIFTERS"

An Austin, Texas, publisher tells of the workings of the various "uplift" movements that seek to defraud newspapers and newspaper readers by filling the papers with free advertising of their various movements. In explaining just how it is worked the Texas man says:

They are working every conceivable scheme to promote money drives, begging campaigns, memorials, statues, volumes or clippings, histories of the war and 287 other games and live-easy-projects seem to be working from a set of lists like this.

They send us pounds and pounds of literature, begging, demanding, threatening, supplicating, and appealing for free space in the name of every business, commercial, advertising, political, patriotic saint who ever lived or who can be conceived. Then, from their lists, they write some soft-hearted woman or some soft-hearted man of some local prominence usually appointing her or him as "city chairman" or "county chairman." Some publicity grafters send engraved certificates of appointment, others engraved cards, other ribbons or badges.

They want their games boosted locally and along with the appointment is another ream of free literature and the local "chairman" is impressed with the fact that it is absolutely necessary to get this "wad" of free stuff printed in the local paper.

The article usually starts off like this:

"Mrs. Johnson Johnson Johnson the well known philanthropist of Austin and highly patriotic woman, has received the important distinction of having been appointed honorary chairman for the city of Austin by the directors of the Association for the creation of Associations. Mrs. Johnson has begun active work and in the interview with a reporter for the Austin American said, 'then goes on about a column of 'put-over'."

Mrs. Johnson just has to have it printed. It is a patriotic move. If we don't print it we are unpatriotic in her mind. Aren't we in favor of its object? Aren't we interested in such uplift work? Aren't we in sympathy with its motives?"

Of course we don't print it and we have a habit of telling Mrs. Johnson Johnson Johnson just how she has been buncoed. Usually she doesn't believe it, because she has such a nice certificate of appointment, and she "just wonders" how they ever got her name. Sometimes she will stop her paper if we don't print it and sometimes they usually do stop for about a week.

She's just another phase of the campaign that is being worked by the New York city publicity grafters.

KINGSTON, N. Y., APRIL 21, 1920.

A Mississippian now proved innocent who escaped hanging only because the noose slipped is said to have received a present of $5,000 from his state. Hardly enough to stop an ordinary damage suit.

A fine way to prevent strikes is to get at the cause. An ounce of prevention as regards strikes is worth a ton of cure. Changing human nature is some job but you can guide selfishness somewhat if you try.

The fact that railroad employees in New England and the south have remained at their posts is another indication that the "outlaw" strike is of foreign origin. The foreign element in the two sections named is relatively small.

A spokeswoman for the Massachusetts branch of the Communist party is quoted: "We will invite the capitalists to surrender, and if they refuse they will be responsible for what may follow." In other words, your money or your life.

A wonderful cannon is said to have been invented in France, with a muzzle velocity of 4,178 feet per second, and a range of 100 to 120 miles. If the Germans had had that gun and had reached Calais, they would not only have carried out their plan of shooting across the channel but could have shelled London.

"Fighting men rarely have any trouble. Disturbances usually take place among camp followers." There is no doubt about this for the fellow who will stand up and either win or lose will let the decision settle things, whereas the others will whine and whimper and nag. This is what causes the trouble, much of which is not worth while. The difficult thing to teach any of us seems to be how to lose gracefully. It surely is an art that even some big men have not mastered.

Senator Henry M. Sage says that the increase in state expenditures is startling and that eventually some means will have to be adopted towards curtailment. True, every word of it, but the decrease will not come with the appointment of commissions to do this and that and everything else, particularly when there are state officials paid to make such inquiry and recommendations as are necessary. The intrusion of outside influences upon the administration of the various departments is one of the prime causes of the increase.

Friends of Governor Smith say that he is determined not to run again. While the governor may change his mind the fact remains that if he declines the Democrats might just as well nominate a cigar indiano. Those who have discussed the question of the governor running again to succeed himself say that his disposition is to quit a winner and not take any chances on losing. Nevertheless his declination would weaken the ticket so that it would be difficult to find any man to stand for the nomination unless it were someone who wanted to use it for advertising purposes. Notwithstanding the black outlook for the Democrats it appears as if "Al" would have to make the try as a matter of duty to his party. When Tammany men are called they seldom fail to respond. "Al" is proud of being a Tammany man. He has said so many times.

ENCOURAGING PUBLIC ENEMIES

In 1894, when the American Railway Union held up traffic and obstructed the mails, the government ordered every federal district attorney in the west to take prompt action, and when it was found impossible otherwise to protect the mail trains in Chicago, the center of the disturbance, federal troops were sent there to restore order. Before this salutary step was taken, and while the lawless strikers were howling at injunctions and successfully resisting the state police, President Cleveland, in a statement commending order, said: "Those who disregard this warning and persist in taking part with a riotous mob in forcibly resisting and obstructing the execution of the laws of the United States, or interfering with the functions of the government, or destroying or attempting to destroy the property belonging to the United States or under its protection, can not be regarded otherwise than as public enemies."

Recalling all this, characterizing the present disturbance as one of the most insolent examples of "the public be damned spirit," and declaring that the railroad strikers are depending on "the supposed helplessness of the public and the presumed supineness of the government," the New York Sun goes on to say: "Today, as in the summer of 1894, the strikers have become public enemies. Today, as then, these public enemies ought to be arrested and sent to prison. But today we have no Grover Cleveland in the White House."

Why Brunswick Tires Win Preference

There are two main reasons—one, the name itself, which certifies supreme value—the other, that time tells the same story.

Thus reputation and performance unite in giving you all you expect—and more.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires. Many motorists would pay more readily, but the Brunswick idea is to GIVE the utmost, rather than to GET the utmost. And this has been true since 1845. You can appreciate what Brunswick Standards mean by trying ONE Brunswick Tire. It will be a revelation. You'll agree that you could not buy a better, regardless of price.

And, like other motorists, you'll decide to have ALL Brunswicks. Then you'll know supreme satisfaction from your tires—longer life, minimum trouble, lower cost.

FORMER STUDENTS OF ULSTER MEET

Mathematics Prize in Memory of Prof. William E. Buntin to Be Given Each Year—Campaign to Start at Once.

Plans for a campaign to raise funds to provide a yearly prize for Kingston High School graduates, were made at a meeting of Ulster Academy graduates held in the office of the superintendent of schools at the High School Tuesday night. The prize will be in mathematics and will be awarded in memory of the late Prof. William E. Buntin, the first principal of Ulster Academy, and a scholar in mathematics.

The meeting was attended by a number of graduates, representing some of the early classes of the school. Mrs. Frank Brink of Lake Katrine was chosen chairman, and Ray G. Walter, secretary. The superintendent of schools was designated as the treasurer of the fund to be raised.

The money received will be properly invested, the interest being used for the awards. If sufficient funds are raised a second prize will be given.

Solicitation is not to be confined to graduates of Ulster. All who have ever attended "the school on the commons" will be given an opportunity to participate in perpetuating the name of Ulster.

Representatives of the various classes from 1881 to 1915 will solicit from the members of their respective classes. Contributions from graduates if possible should be made to them. However checks and cash donations from graduates or former students of Ulster can be sent to Supt. M. J. Michael at the High School. It is requested that the names of all contributors accompany the contributions, as it is desired to preserve the name of all such donors.

The next meeting will be held at the High School on Tuesday evening, June 1.

DEM. COUNTY
COM. ORGANIZESJ. J. McGrath Re-elected Chairman
—Pride Expressed in Achievements of Wilson and Smith.

Members of the Democratic county committee met Tuesday afternoon at the court house for the purpose of organizing and passing resolutions commending the Democratic administration both state and national. The Ulster county Democrats went on record as expressing "its pride in the achievements of Woodrow Wilson, our great President."

After William C. DeWitt had guided about 30 of the faithful few up-stairs to the court chambers, Chairman J. J. McGrath called the meeting to order and Secretary Henry E. McKenzie from the town of Esopus called the roll.

The members then proceeded to select county committeemen in four districts where a tie existed. In the 1st district of Marlborough George N. LeFever was chosen, in Rosendale second district, John L. Sullivan and in the second of Shawangunk, William Burgher. In the first district of the tenth ward of the city, David Brown was elected. Frank Quigley nominating all of the successful men.

The election of officers resulted in J. J. McGrath, who was nominated by Emanuel Metzger, being re-elected chairman; Henry McKenzie, secretary and Eugene B. Carey, treasurer. Judge James Betts then introduced his resolution commending the president on his administration. The resolution offered and adopted by the meeting was:

The Democratic county committee of Ulster county, in meeting assembled, does hereby express its pride in the achievements of Woodrow Wilson, our great president, and his administration of the affairs of our country during the past seven years of crucial stress; and

Whereas, President Wilson has been made the target of partisan, bitter, unjust and narrow criticism by the leaders of the Republican party in a wanton attempt to destroy and belittle his great works before our country and the world in a discreditable conspiracy to carry the next presidential election, cost what it may to humanity or in dollars, be it therefore

Resolved, that this Ulster county Democratic committee condemns such unmanly and unfair methods; and has faith in the judgment and common sense of the American people, and believes that they will rebuke the Republican party at the polls this fall for its ignoble attacks upon this great American now happily recovering from his severe illness.

In offering the resolution Judge Betts said:

The Democratic party has successfully led this country through the greatest war of all time at a minimum sacrifice of the life of its youth. It has shown that though republicans are loath to war they can and will fight in defense of a great principle.

The Democratic party successfully negotiated a righteous peace that rendered other wars extremely improbable in order that your sons and mine could give of their brawn and their minds to the great work of helping mankind, not destroying it. The great work of our party has so far been hindered and delayed by the leaders of the Republican party in congress. Eternal talk has been the price we have paid for a delayed peace of righteousness and justice. The hatred of the Republican leaders towards the nation that caused this war and brought this world's blight and misery has by some strange transmutation been turned towards the world's leader during the war, since and now, Woodrow Wilson.

No invective is too bitter, no slander too despicable to be used against him. So virulent has this become that it may be well for us to look about us and see if it be real or camouflaged. What do we see?

We see a United States senate rejecting the League of Nations by virtue of a majority secured by the presence of a Republican senator from Michigan who has been indicted by a jury of his neighbors for the unlawful use of huge sums of money in one phase only of his election as senator. We see that senator still retaining his seat with no apparent intention of resigning. Indeed, an attempt is made to justify it so remaining. All this while the truth of the charges upon which he was impeached and in no wise disputed by Republicans. The unlawful use of money for bribery at elections is no novelty by the leaders of the Republican party. We see in the air and taking concrete form the nomination of extremely wealthy men for congress by the Republican leaders.

This war with its magnitude and waste has left many unsettled, unpaid claims against the government. If it be as it is seriously proposed, the intention by the Republican leaders to nominate for Congress a man, or a set of men, with huge unsettled, disputed bills claimed by him or them against the United States, the War Department or the Navy Department so that the nominee if successful, may assist in auditing his own bills or be influential at Washington while such bills are being audited and paid, such a question is alive, a burning question for you to discuss with your neighbors of both parties and ascertain the facts.

We see the supporters of leading Republican candidates for the nomination for president charging that immense sums of money are being unlawfully used in the Republican primaries for the nomination, mind you, not for the election, but for the nomination to get a chance to run even by or on behalf of other Republican candidates for the nomination for President of the United States.

Think of it will you, please, the saturation of corruption and bribery said by Republicans to be started in the Republican primaries and primary conventions. And for a nomination only. In this connection one who takes the care to read what is said to be the delegates controlled by the Republican candidates for the presidency will see that in the southern states where there are hardly enough Republicans to act as election officials the alleged principal offender in the corrupt use of money is said to already have nearly all of the delegates corralled. This talk, these charges are all by Republicans against Republicans. They know each other well. When Republican candidates fall out honest Democrats often get their dues! If all this is to obtain a Republican nomination only what in the name of an outraged heaven will your Democratic organizations have to meet in November? You Democrats cannot fight the devil with his fire. The Democratic party consists largely of men with small means. Average men—and it is the average men that in the last act determine things right. Is this virulent abuse of our president, simply camouflage to hide their purpose to carry the elections by bribery of the voters said by the Republicans themselves to be already started in their primaries?

The Republican leaders looking upon a Democrat in the White House, a Democrat in the executive mansion at Albany, a Democratic mayor in the largest city in the world are not cheerful. They are not good sports, not good losers. For the last six years laws have been made not for the rich alone, but to give equality to each man and woman. A Republican victory will change all that and we will go back to the days of special privileges to the wealthy few. It is our duty to do our part to prevent such a backward step.

Emanuel Metzger, Democratic candidate for mayor in 1919, took the floor and endorsed the statements made by Judge Betts and seconded the resolution offered.

Thomas J. Comerford offered the resolution commending Governor Smith on his administration. The resolution offered by Mr. Comerford was:

"Resolved, by the Ulster county Democratic county committee in meeting assembled on this 20th day of April, that we congratulate the people of the great state of New York and the Democratic party upon the success of Governor Alfred E. Smith in all things pertaining to the conduct of affairs by the executive in the Empire State."

In offering his resolution, Mr. Comerford dwelt upon the "wise men" with whom Governor Smith had surrounded himself since becoming a tenant in the executive mansion in Albany. He spoke of the letting of the contract for the Staighsburg bridge and stated that this was due to Governor Smith and Major Greene, Democratic executives, although Senator Walton and Assemblyman Van Wagenen, he said, should be given some credit. The senate and assembly which passed the appropriation bill to supply the funds were not mentioned as being important in the matter. Following the adoption of the resolution Mr. Quigley moved for adjournment.

New York, April 21.—Although some stocks moved in an irregular manner at the opening of the stock market today, the entire list was in demand after the start and made upturns ranging from fractions to 4 points. Lackawanna Steel continued prominent, advancing 3 1/2 to 84. Steel Common rose 1/2 to 102. Baldwin Locomotive, after yielding to 123 1/2, advanced to 121, while Republic Steel dropped to 106 and then public Steel to 105 1/2. Crucible fell 1 point to 105 1/2 but quickly recovered to 106 1/2. Mexican Petroleum rose 3 1/2 points to 187 1/2. Pan-American 1 point to 104 1/2. Royal Dutch 1 1/2 to 112. Transcontinental Oil was under continued pressure, however, falling 1 1/2 to a new low record of 17 1/2. Standard advanced 1 1/2 to 114 1/2. General Motors 3/4 to 321 and Pierce Arrow 1 point to 43. United States Rubber, after dropping to 104 1/2, rose to 105. Fractional advances were made in the copper and railroad shares.

There was active trading in many names during the forenoon with a strong tone maintained in the industrial shares. Lackawanna rose 1/2 to 82 1/2, while Republic Steel, Baldwin and Vanadium Steel made gains of about 2 points. Steel Common held within a narrow range selling from 101 1/2 to 102 1/2. Corn Products was active, advancing 1 1/2 to 100 1/2 and American Beet Sugar rose over 2 points to above 100. Pierce Arrow rose 2 points to 69 1/2 and gains of from 2 to 3 points were made in the other motor shares. Mexican Petroleum rose 5/8 to 189 1/2 and Pan-American Petroleum advanced 2 points to 104 1/2. Sinclair and Transcontinental Oil continued in supply, the former falling to 85 1/2 and the latter to 17 1/2.

A wave of selling came into the market during the early afternoon forcing severe losses in practically the entire list.

Commission house liquidation was forced in large volume by the declines which occurred in the market after mid-day when many severe losses were suffered in every issue on the list. The specialties were the heaviest sufferers. General Motors falling from a morning high of 321 to 324 while the certificates fell nearly 4 points to 29 1/2. Mexican Petroleum broke 14 points to 175 and Pan-American Petroleum yielded over 6 points to 98 1/2. Sinclair Oil dropped over 3 points to 84 1/2.

The market closed weak; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds weak.

SOLDIER BONUS.

National Legislation Hangs On Republican Caucus Result.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, April 21.—The fate of bonus legislation for ex-service men hangs on the decision on a caucus of house Republicans to be held tomorrow night.

Insurgency has developed in Republican ranks over the form of bonus to be granted and the character of special taxes necessary to raise the required money.

Leaders favor the raising of the money by levying gross sales tax on retailers or "turnovers" as well as on the final sale.

The charge is made that the proposed gross sales tax is the first move of big business to wipe out the surtax on big incomes and excess profits tax. Otto Kahn, New York financier, expressed the belief that the proposed tax would be sufficient to eliminate the others. Republican leaders say, however, that should a gross sales tax be decided on in the caucus it would be in addition to all existing taxes and will be sufficient only to meet the bonus demand and will be repealed at the end of the year in which the bonus is to be paid.

The plan practically agreed on by the majority of house Republicans embodies an elective bonus of $150 a day cash bonus for enlisted men after 60 days service, or land settlement or vocational training. The cash bonus would require $1,500,000,000, with the other features it might reach $2,000,000,000 it is estimated.

Ulster Garden Club.

On Tuesday afternoon the Ulster Garden Club met with Mrs. DeWitt Roosa at her home on Fair street. The club members were privileged to listen to a very interesting and entertaining paper on "Seeds," given by George Burgevin. Opening with a poem by Kipling, Mr. Burgevin went on to show the almost miraculous development of plant life, especially that of our finest flowers, within the memory of all of us. The carnation and the chrysanthemum were especially noted, and it was shown how much of this wonderful development was due to improvement by selection.

Goat Glands Forstall Barrenness.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, April 21.—The interstitial glands of a young goat were transplanted today to the body of a bridegroom-to-be in an effort to forestall a barren marriage. The operation was performed by Dr. John R. Brinkley of Milford, Kansas, and Dr. David Rosner of New York, at the latter's office. The name of the patient was withheld. Dr. Rosner said that the operation had been successful.

Y., April 21.—The legislature today took the first step toward development of waterpower on state lands in the Adirondacks when the senate by a vote of 30 to 16 passed the Sage bill proposing an amendment to the constitution permitting erection of electric transmission lines in the forest preserve.

Disabled Steamer Not Found.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Boston, April 21.—Search for the American wooden steamer William O'Brien, reported in distress 500 miles east of Philadelphia, has failed to reveal any trace of the vessel. ## THE BUTTON BAG.

"In a work bag," said Daddy, "there lived a button bag. The button bag was made of blue and white cambric, I believe you call it, and it had a blue silk ribbon around it at the top—I suppose a sort of necktie, one might say."

"At any rate, in this bag were loads and loads of buttons. The button bag was a very large button bag, and the work bag was a very large work bag."

"Whenever anyone wanted a button, or whenever anyone said they had lost a button or that a button was off, the work bag was taken out and then a button was found—always a button for everything that needed a button."

"And when any member of the household wanted to do a little mending for everything that lacked a button there was always found to be one. 'What did the buttons and the button bag have to say to all this? Were they pleased they were so useful? We will hear.'

"When is the party going to be asked the big, white button, with the shining face."

"Pretty soon," said the little green button, 'pretty soon.'

"I've been to lots of parties," said a button with a funny little face, a face of some old, old knight or lord or something very noble."

"He had two sisters and a brother and the four of them were all just alike. They had never been used, as nothing had ever come up that needed their time and their presence. They had been in the button box for years. But, of course, they were kept, for there might be a time, so one knows when or how soon, when the buttons with the faces might be just the ones wanted."

"It's so nice," said the one who had just spoken, 'that we are always sure of a home. It's so nice. Some folks would throw us away and would say they had no use for a lot of old buttons taking up room when they were about sure we'd never be used.'

"But we don't have to worry, for the mistress of the house who owns the work bag and the button bag and all the buttons, always says that we don't eat or drink, meaning we don't cost her any money, and we might be useful some time."

"She's a sensible lady, yes she is. And we're sure of a home, quite sure of one."

"But as I said I had been to a great many parties because I have lived in the button bag such a long time, though once I lived on a handsome dress, oh, such a handsome dress, and then I went to great balls and parties and all."

"Ah," said a big black button, 'I've had a nice life, too. I've lived on fur coats. I've been on several, and I've been out on gloriously racing winter days when the snow came in my face and body all at once!'

"I've been for sleigh-rides where bells jingled and where my button heart leaped for joy!'

"And I," said a little brown button, 'have on the other hand been about in the summer. I belonged to a lovely bathing suit which belonged to a little girl, and I used to see the sand made into castles and bridges and rivers, and all sorts of marvelous things, and the lovely ocean would go over me—oh, it was so cool and refreshing!'

"And all about me were happy, smiling people. Everyone was shrieking with delight. If I had known how to shriek I would have called at the top of my voice, if I had a voice."

"Oh, the button is happy, too. The button is so happy!'

"Well," said the tan button, we must get ready for the party, as we must frolic all night and then be back in our places by morning, so it won't confuse or mix one up if they sew in the morning."

"Right," said all the buttons. "So they all borrowed old pieces of ribbon from the bag and little pieces of thread, and they dressed themselves in fine array, and then they danced and sang in their little button voices, which, of course, aren't real voices, and only make-believe ones. And this was their song:

"The buttons are so happy, cheerful and glad.
We're of all kinds and we're never sad.
We have tails like you and tails like me.
Ah, yes, indeed, we're a merry, merry set."

Many in little.
In a handful of snow there might be 2,000 crystals and two of them still—Brooklyn Eagle.

ROTARIANS FROM ALL THE WORLD

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Atlantic City, April 21.—Toronto Rotarians are coming in every conveyance known to man to the eleventh annual convention of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, held here on the Steel Pier during the week of June 21st. And they are coming 300 strong. They have chartered a special train on which the majority will travel. A big contingent will motor to the shore in a fleet of automobiles, calling at Rotary towns en route, four yachtsmen propose to sail to this port, and two airmen will fly here. Atlantic City has the first official airport to be established on the Atlantic coast, and Rotarian-birdmen will find a good landing place for airplanes or seaplanes.

The first big batch of applications for reservations has been received by the 1920 convention committee, by requests for accommodations pour in hourly by mail or wire. The expectation is for an attendance of about 8,000, and preparations are to that end. The delegates will represent every big city in this country, and Canada, and many smaller cities beside clubs from overseas. Four visitors are on their way from Shanghai, China; nearly a half hundred have sent bookings from English towns, 40 hail from Cuba, and reservations ranging in number from 10 to 30 are called for by clubs from every point on the continent. To illustrate the far reaching effect of Rotary, there are applications from Honolulu, Havana, Porto Rico, Liverpool, Edinburgh, Ottawa, and Pueblo among many others. Niagara Falls Rotarians have planned to entertain delegates traveling eastward by that route with a view of the great falls. Other clubs on the route to the convention are preparing to give stop-over hospitality to their traveling colleagues. Fifth district clubs will maintain headquarters and open house with daily teas and dancing in the middle hall room of the Steel Pier. Plans were completed at the recent district conference at Scranton, Pa. The district comprising 31 clubs and a membership of nearly 2,700, will join Atlantic City Rotarians in the role of hosts.

TWENTY GIRLS TO STUDY IN FRANCE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, April 21.—To the 409 denominational colleges which are participating in the Interchurch World Movement notice has been sent by Dr. Robert L. Kelly, director of the American Educational Department of the Interchurch, that the French government has authorized the selection of twenty American girls for scholarships in leading lycées of France and six American girls for scholarships in the graduate departments of French universities during the academic year of 1920-21. This notice also has been sent to all members of the Association of American Colleges, of which Dr. Kelly is executive secretary.

The process of selection of those who are to go to France will be begun soon after Dr. Kelly is released from his activities in connection with the united simultaneous financial campaign of the Interchurch World Movement, which aims to obtain subscriptions of $336,777,572 during the week ending April 25. Of this total almost $30,000,000 is sought for the development of American education so that the colleges and universities of the United States may produce an adequate supply of leaders to fill the 100,000 places of need revealed by the world survey of the Interchurch.

Request is made by the French government that applicants for scholarships be from eighteen to twenty years old, but it is announced that applicants who are somewhat older will be considered since candidates for the free scholarships must present junior colleges standing at least. An exceptional record in French is fundamental in the qualifications offered by applicants. Candidates for graduate scholarships must satisfy the same requirements that are imposed by graduate departments of American universities. It is announced all scholarships carry a stipend which covers fees and actual living expenses. Further information may be obtained from Dr. Kelly at Interchurch headquarters, 45 West 18th street, New York city.

PICK UP ALL GREEN ENVELOPES

"Legal size green envelopes S. Cohen's Sons," has attracted the attention of thousands of people during the past few days as they read the daily papers and there has been much comment as to what the meaning of this strange inscription was. At last the mystery has come to light. Cohen's have not engaged in the stationery business and will not sell "legal size green envelopes," they will continue in their same line, clothing. Although several times during the past week Aaron Cohen has been visited by people interested in buying some of these "legal size green envelopes," there has been no sale and there will be none.

"Legal size green envelopes" will be given away each day for the next thirty days, but there will be only one given away each day and that envelope will contain an order for $1 in cash. Some day during the thirty days, beginning April 26, and ending May 25, there will be an envelope given away containing an order for $5 in cash.

The method of distributing these "legal size green envelopes" is original with Mr. Cohen and the idea will without a doubt be copied by hundreds of progressive merchants all over the country. Some time, some place and somehow on each of the thirty days a "legal size green envelope" will be dropped on a street in the city; this envelope will contain the order for $1 in cash, unless it happens to be the big one containing the order for $5 in gold.

All parts of the city will be visited and each day a different section of the city will be visited. One day the envelope may be found at Kingston Point and the next day you may find it on the Washington avenue viaduct.

Each day as the envelope is found and redeemed at the store, the name of the finder will be published in Mr. Cohen's "ad" in the daily paper, giving the location where the envelope was found.

If you see a green envelope, pick it up, it may be worth $5 in gold. This idea is original with Aaron Cohen and although it will cost considerable money in these times of the High Cost of Living, Mr. Cohen is going to use his idea in order to create some interest and excitement.

A "legal size green envelope" will be dropped each day, rain or shine, in some part of the city and the order therein will be redeemed at its face value, not in goods or trade, but in cash.

No. 2 Wants Games.

No. 2 played a practice game of ball on O'Reilly street, defeating the St. Mary's nine by a score of 5 to 1. The battery for No. 2 was Hotelling and Smith, while Boyle and Mooney were the battery for St. Mary's. No. 2 would like to play other schools.

Gulls of the Pacific Coast.

Along the Pacific coast there are three common species, the glaucous-winged, the western and the California gulls, which are not found in the East. They are white-headed species, not strikingly different from the herring gull.—A. A. Allen, in American Forester.

DOMINIE AJACK OF ALL TRADES

If the Rev. George A. Learn, Baptist missionary at Kodiak, Alaska, should decide to forsake the ministry for eight or ten of the dozen professions, occupations and trades he has mastered, he would probably have to engage a staff of expert accountants to figure his next year's income tax. Men of many callings are not uncommon along the "Trail of the Yukon," but for one man—and a minister too—to be editor, plumber, teacher, engineer and eight, "count 'em," more in one, is beyond the ken of ordinary mortals.

When Mr. Learn left his snug pastorate in New York several years ago to journey in the land of the midnight sun, he expected to become a missionary evangelist. The Northern Baptists had been assigned Kodiak and adjacent islands as their territory for evangelization so he established his little mission on Wood Island, just across the harbor from the trading post of Kodiak.

But his was not to be an uneventful life. He found that the long winters failed to yield much in the way of food, so he began canning chicken, meat, vegetables, etc., in the summer. The 600-acre tract that had been allotted to him had to be cultivated and with the crudest of farm implements at first. He became an excellent farmer. Then disease began to claim numbers of the natives on the island. Influenza made its first invasion, carrying off one-third of the population. The Rev. Mr. Learn soon became a practiced doctor and nurse.

One of the direct results of the "flu" ravages was the establishing of an orphanage on the island where parentless children could be cared for. During the construction the minister proved that he was as adept at "wiping a joint" as he was at saving a soul. He also turned out to be something of a carpenter. He has also proved his engineering ability on many an occasion, drawing up plans for construction, "running traverses" and directing the work.

Mr. Learn, as superintendent of the Wood Island Baptist Mission and Orphanage, arbitrates many differences between natives, who come to him with most of their troubles. He is renowned locally as a jurist. He is an able soloist, having a clear tenor voice. He edits the "News Letter," a weekly paper and has direct charge of the educating of native children at his orphanage. Some of his photographs have been strikingly typical of the country and most unusual in fineness of detail.

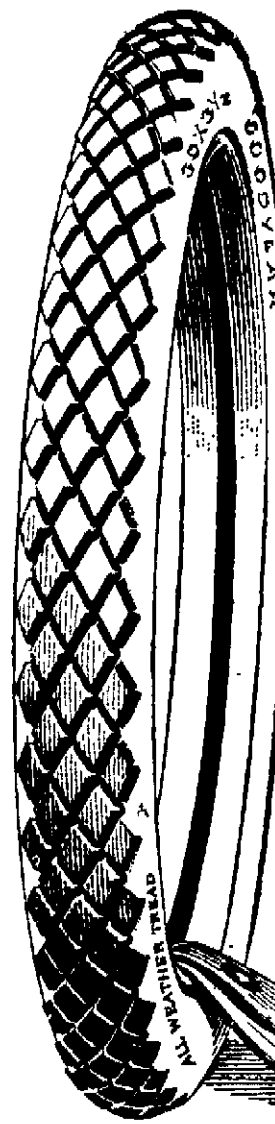

Northern Baptists have a territory in Alaska extending down through the Aleutian Islands and north several hundred miles into the mainland, yet there is only one Baptist mission on the ground. The New World Movement of the denomination, for which $100,000,000 is being raised, April 25 to May 2nd contemplates extending this work as a part of its home mission program.

Valuable Coconut By-Product.

A number of oil-extracting plants have been established in the United States and Europe to handle coconuts, because it has been discovered that the pulp left after the coconut oil has been extracted is a very valuable stock food and can also be used as a fertilizer, and this by-product commands a good price.

As a stock food it compares favorably with cotton seed, though it contains less carbohydrates and more fat, ash and fiber. The oil is used for many purposes, including cooking or for salads, the making of soap, etc.

There are at the present time in the Philippines approximately 400,000 coconut trees, producing nearly 1,000,000 tons per annum, of which 300,000 tons are made into copra. A coconut palm will yield from 25 to 30 nuts each year, and they are taken from the tree, when fully mature, about once every three or four months. The nuts are collected by poles over the drying or smoking sheds and the outer shell or husk is torn away from the hard shell of the nut by means of a tool similar to the ployshare. The nut is then split open with a large knife or bolo, and the halves, with the meat exposed, are placed over fires on racks constructed of wood, and are allowed to remain there until the meat drops from the shell. Where sun drying is practiced, the halved nuts are allowed to remain subjected to the sun's rays for a period of about six days, or until the meat loosens from the shell.

BEER BILL TO PASS SENATE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Albany, N. Y., April 21.—The stage is set for passage of the Walker 2.75 per cent beer bill in the senate late this afternoon.

Senator James J. Walker, Democratic leader, who is sponsor for the bill, claimed he is assured of 32 votes for the bill. Among those who will back the measure is Republican Leader J. Henry Walters.

Some doubt exists as to whether advocates of beer will be able to corral enough votes to pass the measure in the assembly. Colonel Hanson H. Gillett of Columbia, who will have charge of the bill on the floor, asserted today he will have 88 votes pledged, sufficient to pass it.

"SKIN TIGHTS" GO OUT

Training tailors for a naked nation! That is the big task began in a small way by the instruction of a group of young Zulus at the Congregational mission school in Natal, South Africa. When the Zulu tribe passes from the stage of picturesque, but practically unclad savagery to that of clothed civilization the native tailors will be ready to provide suitable clothes for yesterday's wild warriors.

Industrial and vocational training for Zulus is a strong feature of the work of Amanzimtoti Institute at Adams, Natal. This institution is backed by one of the thirty denominations co-operating under the name of the Interchurch World Movement which will seek, in all parts of the United States the week of April 25, a fund of $336,777.52 to forward a new world program of religious effort.

Pearl B. Odell On Stand.

Rochester, N. Odell, took the witness stand this afternoon to tell her story of the killing of Edward J. Knopf and to bare her relations with the lad whose cheeks and ears she tore to shreds with a file as he stood helpless, handcuffed to a tree on the lonely Mosquito Point Road in Chili in January last.

The KITCHEN CABINET

If we looked for people's virtues And the faults refused to see, What a pleasant, cheerful, happy Place this world would be.

HELPFUL HINTS.

The ordinary observer at the table feels much better qualified to carve the fowl than the man at the head of the table.

A tactful guest will be happily entertained by the hostess or the lady next, rather than stare the fowl out of countenance while the host is wrestling with the carving. Some one has said that she is indeed a true entertainer who can hold the attention of the guests from the carving.

A well-cooked fowl and carefully kept tools will make the carving a pleasure, and some skillful carvers enjoy being the center of attraction.

A well-trussed bird looks better on the table than does a bird with legs and wings at all angles. If the legs have been removed from the legs before cooking they (the legs) will be much better eating.

In carving the fork should be placed about half way down the breast bone and kept there all the bird is carved. Remove the wings, drum sticks and second joints, then slice down the breast in thin slices. A large platter is a most important part of the carver's equipment, so that there may be plenty of room to place the carved meat.

When the egg-beater slips a cog place it so that the head of the bolt which holds the wheel in the frame is resting on an iron. With a few blows of the hammer the trouble will be removed.

A few pieces of screen used on the gas burner to hold small dishes when cooking will be found a great saving.

Rubber gloves will wear much longer if they are turned the other side out after each wearing. This changes the wear and makes them last longer. Putting with talcum or cornstarch lengthens the life of rubber gloves.

Instead of using cotton to stop the holes in bottles after they are filled with milk, cover with little squares of waxed paper held on with a rubber band. The paper may be used several times, while cotton sometimes gets into the milk and can be used but once. Of course the paper should be on the outside and kept in a covered receptacle.

The Eskimo lady is just as stylish in her "Arctic Circle" as the other lady in her social circle

This is how Eskimos look without the aid of fur clothes and snow igloos. There isn't the slightest suggestion of perpetual winter or chasing polar bears across the ice in this picture of a spring sun bath in Alaska. Mop caps, calico gowns and bandannas are Eskimo spring fashions, and certainly do not suggest the frigid North. Down at Palm Beach they are wearing furs and carrying parasols.

Eskimo sod houses are damp and unhealthy, and the members of this usually hardy race living at Nushagak fell easy victims to the influenza epidemic in the winter of 1918-1919 when two-thirds of the adults died. Practically the only available modern medical attention the dwellers in remote Alaskan communities have is furnished by the mission physicians and hospitals maintained in the far northern territory by the thirty evangelical churches co-operating under the name of the Interchurch World Movement which will seek to raise in all parts of the United States the week of April 25 a fund of $336,777.52 to back a new program of religious effort for the world.

"THE MAKING" OF AMERICANS

It is teaching children like these that keep the world turning round and the International Brotherhood of the Y. W. C. A. a work.

They're "The Making," the raw material of these persons we cherish today, good Americans.

The Y. W. C. A. believes "in making them young" and so it cultivates children like these born of foreign parents in America, and makes friends with them. Often in large cities giving the children more where they can play is the happiest thing they can do. The language and customs of their adopted country soon come, around nature to their budding Americans.

A National Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States will be held in Cleveland on the third week of April. Delegates from the thousand Association centers in the United States will meet for the first time in five years. War and the pressure of war work precluded the last meeting in 1915.
